ADDITIONAL PROBATION TERMS

The Defendant will participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office, which programs may include testing to determine whether the Defendant has reverted to using drugs, or alcohol. The court authorizes the release of available drug treatment evaluations and reports to the substance abuse treatment provider, as approved by the Probation Officer. The Defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered(co-payment), in an amount determined by the Probation Officer, based on ability as secondary to restitution, which is first obligation or availability of the third party payment.

The Defendant shall participate in a mental health program approved by the U.S. Probation Office. The Defendant shall continue to take any prescribed medications unless otherwise instructed by the health care provider. The Defendant shall contribute to the costs of services rendered not covered by third-party payment, if the Defendant has the ability to pay. The Court authorizes the release of available psychological and psychiatric evaluations and reports to the health care provider.

The Defendant will provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all requested financial information.

The Defendant will not incur any new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the Probation Officer unless the Defendant is in compliance with the installment payment schedule.

It is recommended that the Defendant is to be supervised by the district of residence.

The Defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the Defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

Restitution will be paid in the amount of $24,127.20 at a rate of 10% of the Defendants gross monthly income. Restitution shall be paid to the New York City Housing Authority.

The Defendant shall notify the U.S. Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of mailing or residence address that occurs while any portion of the restitution remains unpaid.

Fine waived or below the guideline range because of inability to pay.

The Defendant will pay a special assessment in the amount of $100.00.
